To everything there is a season,
And a time to every purpose under heaven:

- a time to be born, and a time to die;
- a time to plant, and a time to pluck up what is planted;
- a time to kill, and a time to heal;
- a time to break down, and a time to build up;
- a time to weep, and a time to laugh;
- a time to mourn, and a time to dance;
- a time to cast away stones, and a time to gather stones together;
- a time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing;
- a time to seek, and a time to lose;
- a time to keep, and a time to cast away;
- a time to rend, and a time to sew;
- a time to keep silence, and a time to speak;
- a time to love, and a time to hate;

Well as you know,
this is a yearbook,
and every year
they pass their things around to be signed

Well, this year I'm signing this one, so if I'm signing this one it must be a yearbook. I won't say best of luck in the future, take care of Johnny, be good,

watch the boys, you're a sweet, kind, nice,
cute, clean cut girl.
But I will say you're a real good friend and I think you should know all of that stuff.

To see you next year
I hope! AAF

Dedication

A teacher who finds time for students—no matter how busy, she is always willing to advise, eager to teach, anxious to help, and able to understand.

Seniors, look back to your sophomore year when the secrets of mathematics carefully began to unfold under the able direction of a dedicated teacher.

As an advisor she skillfully helped us last year, understanding the numerous problems we encountered—and always offering a solution. Of course you remember our junior prom, but can you recall who was the first to arrive and the last to leave as we tediously transformed the gym into "La Nuit a Paris?"

Try to count the number of times that she went out of her way to help us. Try to measure all the devotion she has given freely and openly to us.

This dedication is our humble way of saying "thank you. Thank you Mildred Ecker for all that you have given us."

The Class of 1970

Faculty

. . . A Time for Learning

The administration and faculty of North Carroll are special people. Nowhere else will one find a group so dedicated to the educating, guiding, and shaping of many young people's lives. They are especially helpful and they spend many hours doing things beyond their duties.

Their's is not an easy profession. It calls for intelligence, endurance, kindness, and leadership combined with many other qualities. We feel that our teachers have got all of them.

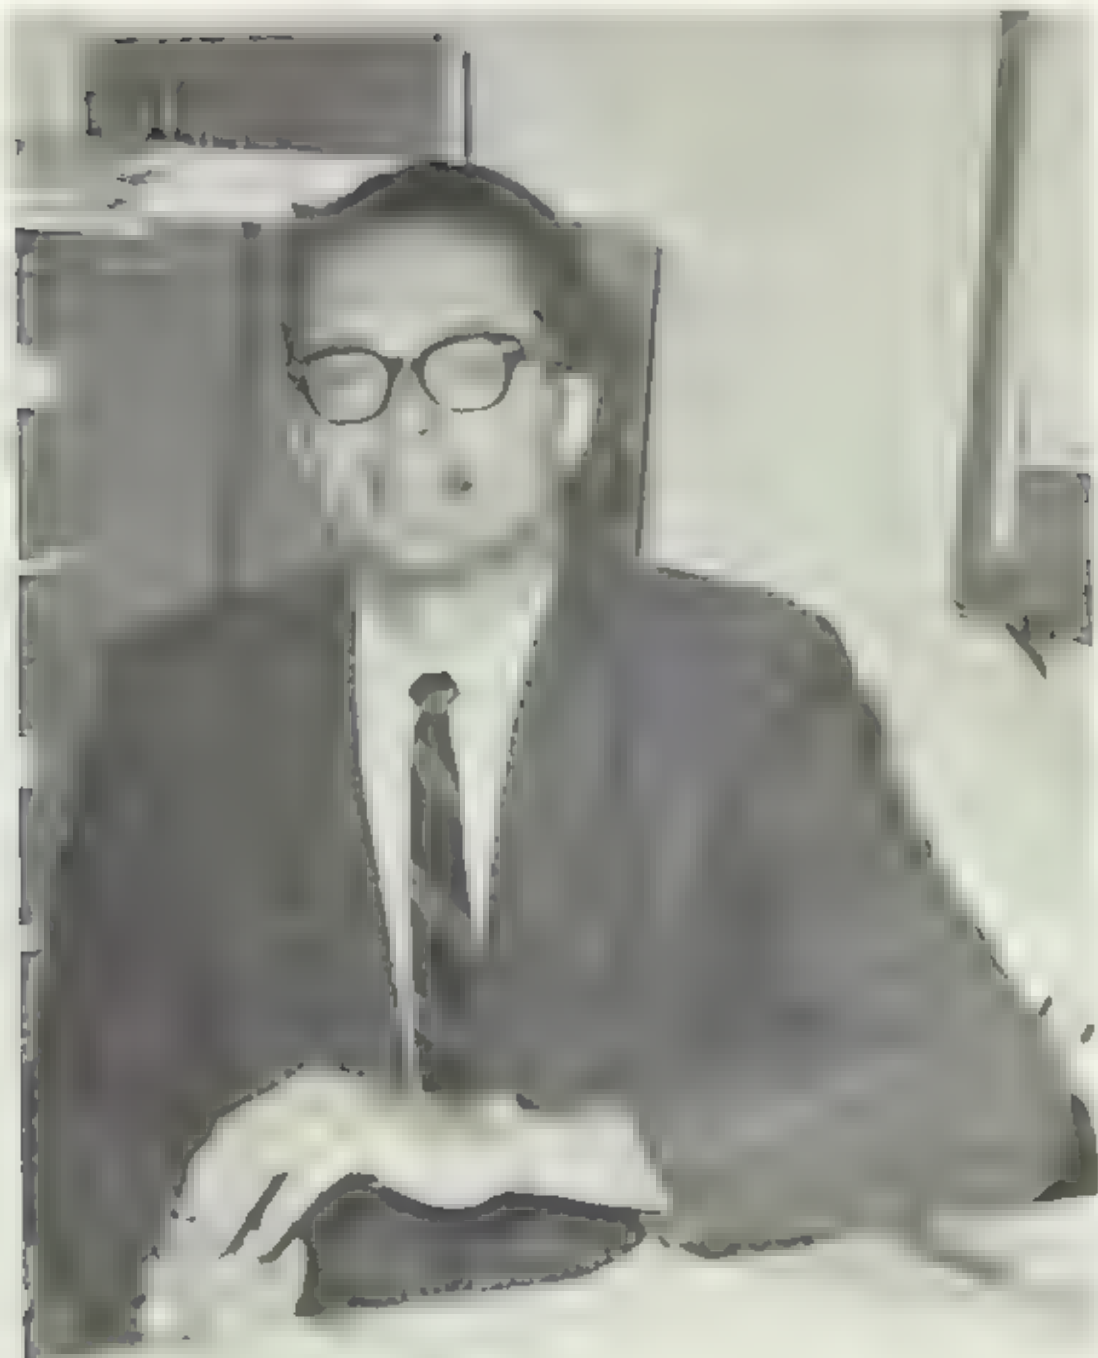

To the Class of 1970:

The graduation of a class always creates a feeling of loss among those of us who remain behind. The excellent leadership and fine cooperation shown by the Class of 1970 is leaving a very desirable imprint upon the character of our student body and the history of North Carroll. It is my sincere hope that you will carry with you a living thought of the happy and fruitful experiences you enjoyed as a student. I send you forth confident that the communities and activities to which you go will greatly benefit by your presence.

May success and happiness follow you always.

Frank Heather

Vice Principals

Mr. James Young, vice principal of North Carroll Senior High School, has proven to be a real asset to the students of North Carroll. He also takes on many extra responsibilities such as student driving and the daily announcements. Our musical vice principal has a ready smile and his willingness to help students individually or as a group endears him to us all.

Mr. Donald Reck, vice principal of North Carroll Junior High School, does a commendable job in keeping our energetic junior high students in line. He supervises bus transportation and does more than his share in directing and helping our young people.

Guidance Department

S. Mann—Guidance Counselor

L. Simpson—Guidance Counselor

J. Hale—Guidance Counselor

Education prepares one for the future, but often our future is a mystery.

The Guidance Counselors take it upon themselves to direct these futures in the right way and make our paths a little easier. Many students look back with appreciation for the help they received.

Secretaries

L. Smith Secretary

M. Lippy—Secretary

Most secretaries are conscientious, diligent workers, and ours are no exception. Both earnest and eager to help, these secretaries are a valuable asset to the school

A. Abbott—History

C. Osman—Social Studies

E. Schnarz—Social Studies

One should know where he is going, but not without knowing where he has been

Social Studies unlocks the door between the two. It makes the student aware of his surroundings now and perhaps creates the better citizen of tomorrow.

Communication is the key to understanding, and language is the key to communication.

The languages we study at North Carroll span the globe, and through them our interests span the width of man's ideas and goals. We learn about the differences in mankind, but in a larger sense, we learn how very much alike we all are, and how much we need each other.

Science

B. Schmidt—Biology

W. Ensor—Science

D. Johnson—Science

T. Tulley—Science

Mathematics

M. Ecker—Math

B. Leister—Math

J. Reck—Math

L. Haifley—Math

Puzzles have intrigued man since ancient times. The answers to these challenges have been reached through mathematical and scientific means. These studies have not become outdated, but are more significant than before in this ever-changing world.

Through such inspiring teachers as these, the students are encouraged to explore these fields which will become more vital in their future.

Business Education

B. Yingling—Business Education

C. Hook—General Business

K. Bolyard—Business Education

Business education trains us for the business world of tomorrow.

Through the help of our teachers, and through the experience we receive, both in class and in the office, we are more able to compete successfully in the world of commerce.

Physical Education

B. Clendaniel—Physical Education

E. Powell—Physical Education

L. Richards—Physical Education

W. McKenna—Physical Education

C. Day—Physical Education

Physical education is essential for a well-rounded person. Our physical education department excels in their ability to develop perseverance, precision, and most important—sportsmanship

J. Hagy—Agriculture

M. Apter—Special Education

Some qualities that aid a person throughout his life are determination, creativity, integrity and precision. Through the special courses offered at North Carroll, these qualities are given a chance to develop. The individual abilities of these hard-working instructors set first-class examples for us to follow.

. . . A Time for Decisions

The Class of 1970 is ready, ready to go beyond the security of high school, to become adults in a fast moving world. They have struggled to arrive at this point. But now they must decide what is important in life and how they can achieve their goals.

These have been unforgettable years; years that will enrich the memory. They will soon be gone but their spirit and determination will stay on in North Carroll High School.

In Memoriam

Gail Howard Donmoyer

1951-1969

Sunset and evening star,
And one clear call for me!
And may there be no moaning of the bar,
When I put out to sea,
For though from out our borne of Time and Place.
The flood may bear me far,
I hope to see my Pilot face to face,
When I have crossed the bar.

Julie Ann Kinnane . .

Our Australian

The most unforgettable member of the class of 1970 will be Miss Julie-Ann Kinnane, our AFS student from Maryborough, Australia

Julie became one of us immediately and has proven the fact that teen-agers are the same all over the world

Quietest—C. Martin and J. Coleman

Mr. and Miss Senior—K. Alban and P. Bare

Most Dependable—S. Everhart and J. Getty

Most Likely to Succeed—D. Foard and M. Fridinger

Most Talkative—B. Reese and L. Miller

Most School Spirit—B. Kopp and W. Harris

Friendliest—E. Abrecht and J. King

Most Athletic—J. Yeager and P. Kiler

Most Unforgettable—C. Rhodes and J. Kinnane

Activities

. . . A Time for Fun

Throughout the year, the activities add to excitement of the school. The laughter and fun of "Li'l Abner," the beauty of the Christmas Ball, the wonderfully insane antics of "Wild Thing," and the mixture of sadness and joy that make graduation something never to be forgotten, all combine to make the activities so much a part of North Carroll's life

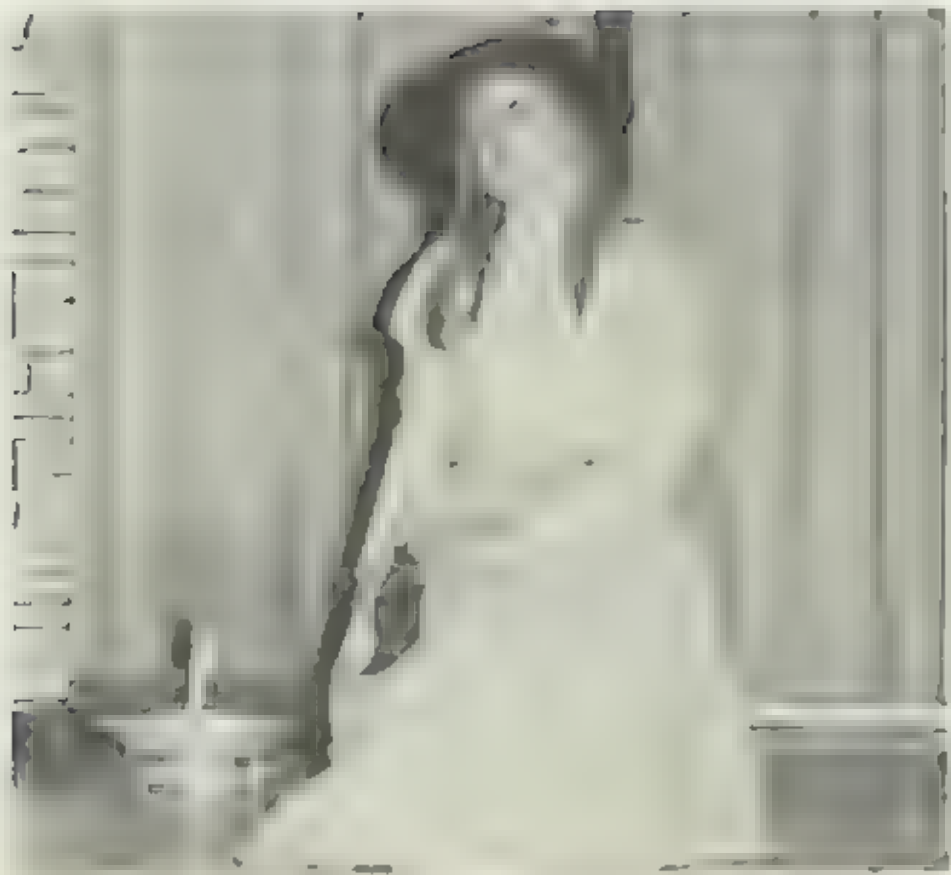

My Fair Lady

We said to them "You Did It" when the Class of '69 performed with much enthusiasm and talent the Broadway musical, "My Fair Lady." The major stars were Shirley Baughman, Mark Gross, Roger Buchanan, Bruce Lippy, and Joe McGee.

La Nuit à Paris

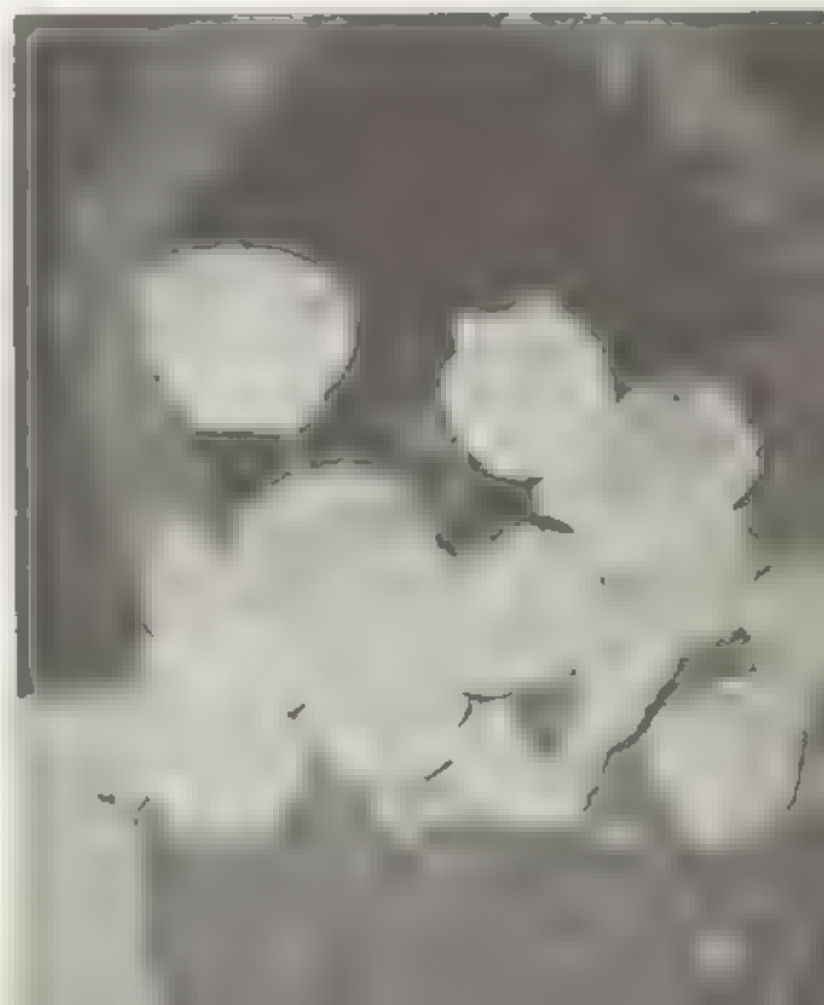

On May 10, the members of the Junior Class brought Paris, France to the Seniors. The gym became the beautiful city with the Eiffel Tower surrounded by small cafes. Music was provided by the Chelseas.

Class Night

Yellow roses in "class color fields" of navy blue and gold were coming up everywhere as the Seniors banded together to hear the reading of the class history, will, and prophecy. The dinner was catered and entertainment included cast members singing several "My Fair Lady" songs.

The Last Steps . . .

Graduation fears grew as days filled with rehearsals, assemblies, and good-byes swiftly passed. With the coming of Baccalaureate, smiles were forced on trembling lips.

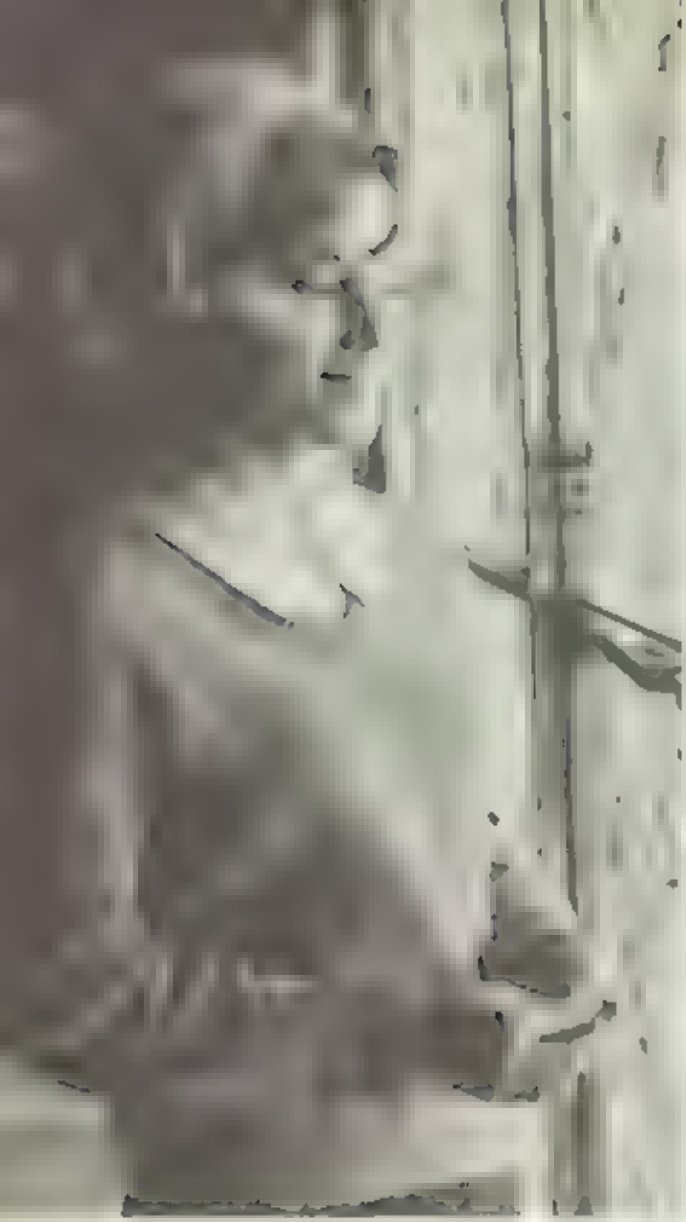

to Graduation

"Knowledge is the door to life; wisdom is the key" will help set the goals for those 158 who started down a new path on June 4. Senator Goodloe E. Byron addressed the class and then with tears and tight voices the class song, "The Impossible Dream," was sung.

Familiar Faces

Senior Day

December 10, 1969 came and, with it, the traditional activity known as Senior Day. The event began with guest speaker, Jacob Hay, a well-known local newspaper writer. His presentation was entitled "The Word Business." Next, the College Singers from Western Maryland College delighted the Class of '70 with several musical selections. The electrifying afternoon came to an end after an excellent meal and dancing in the gaily decorated cafeteria.

A Visit to a Small Planet

The Junior Class play this year was the wonderful comedy, "A Visit To A Small Planet." Under the able direction of Miss Halman, the cast did a fine job on a difficult but rewarding production. Mark Walz was featured as this very funny visitor.

Glass Menagerie

Tennessee Williams' "Glass Menagerie" was presented in November by the Drama Club. The cast included Peggy Muth, Wayne Harvey, Donna Lepo, and Paul Hill. The play departed from custom in that it was done in the round. This deep drama was well-received and very well done.

Winter Wonderland

The Juniors' Christmas gift to students in grades 9-12 and many alumni this year was the Christmas Ball. This year's theme was "Winter Wonderland." The dance featured the music of "The Nouvelles and Emersons" and was presented on Saturday, December 20, 1969. It was enthusiastically received by all who attended

Sports King and Queen

February 6, 1970

On February 6, 1970 the annual Sports Dance was held. Music was supplied by the local group, "Blood of the Sun." The climax of the night was the crowning of the Sports King, Jay Yeager, and the Queen, Pat Kiler

Organizations

. . . A Time for Unity

To be a part of something is so important to each one of us. At North Carroll, the clubs and organizations give us that chance to be ourselves and learn the wonderful experience of being with other people, of working as a team and a group to achieve a goal for ourselves and our school.

Sports

. . . A Time for Spirit

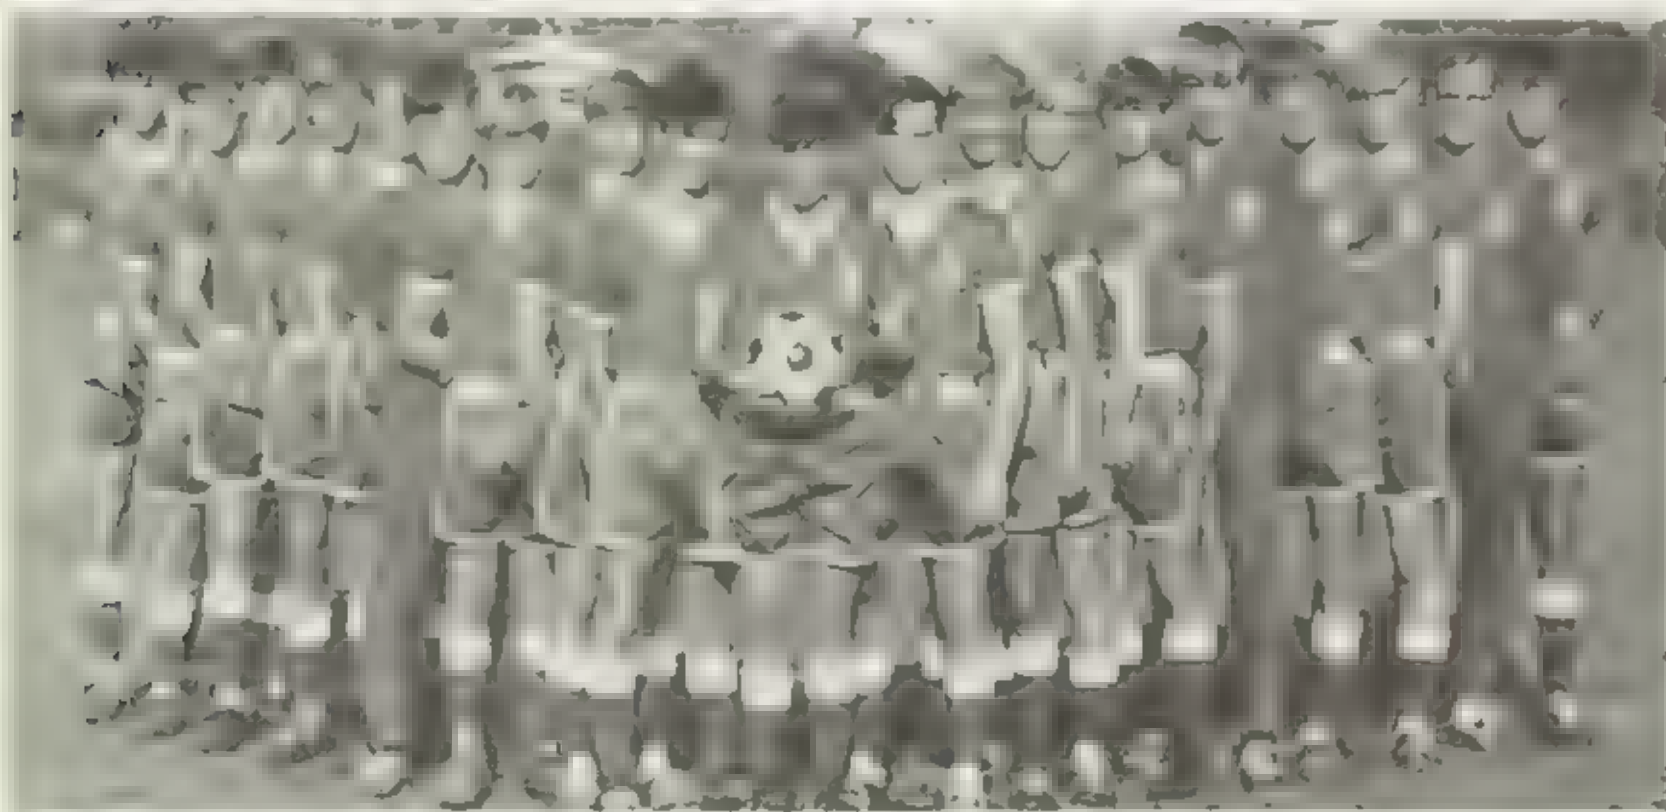

Whether we won or lost, whether there were cheers or tears, the sports season was full of excitement and fun. It didn't matter whether it was football, basketball, track, hockey, gymnastics, soccer, volleyball or wrestling, we pulled for them, cheered for them, and shared in their victory and their defeat. Whether winning or losing, our teams were something to be proud of.

. . . A Time for Thanks

The relationship between a community and a school should be one of mutual support and help. We thank the community for their support during this year and we especially thank our advertisers and patrons who have made the 1970 QUO VADIS possible. We hope you will support our advertisers.

Debbie,
Take of Johnnie, and you're little brother. Just because I'm graduating is no reason for us not to get together any more. Keep in touch will with me this summer. All four of us Best of luck in the future and I hope and know you and Johnnie will have a happy fruitful life together.

Debbie
 To really cute girl and good friend. I hope you have had as much fun this year as I have. Don't forget all the times we had in Biology, English, Spanish, and World History. I wish you and Johnny the best of luck, and stay together forever. I'm sorry about that time that I almost hurted you and John up. I'm really sorry.

Debbie
 To a cute girl with a warm smile and great personality.
 Good luck in your future years at N.C.H.S. and in whatever you attempt to do. Best of luck to you and Johnny. Always remember Mr. Warner's English class, and the great class of '73.
